Sprite Brand Manager Clifford Gooding-Edghill said, "The format of the Sprite Streetball Tournament has been revamped to cater to players in the under-20 age group. Our goal is to encourage the development of basketball amongst the youth by providing them with an opportunity to showcase their talent in a relaxed and fun-filled environment. This year's tournament has attracted teams from several secondary schools, as well as the junior teams of established basketball clubs."

Gooding-Edghill urged the public to come out and support the competitors. "In addition to the team event, players can also compete for individual glory in the three-point and slam dunk competitions. There are also attractive spectator prizes to be won," he said, adding, "Those who are unable to make it to the Clapham court on Saturday, can visit the Sprite Streetball facebook page for updates, photos and video."

There will also be an award for the Most Valuable Player and the Highest-placed School Team will also receive a prize.

The Brand Manager assured the public that the Royal Barbados Police Force will enforce security and a medical team will be on hand.
